THE GRAHAM'S TOWN SERIES

#15077 Duminy, A.H. & Adcock, L.J.G. THE REMINISCENCES OF RICHARD PAYER. The Graham's Town Series 5. After completing his engineering apprenticeship, Richard Paver emigrated to the Eastern Cape in 1843. He worked on the watermills at Sidbury and Glenthorn before entering into an agreement with Sir Andries Stockenstrom to erect a mill at Maasstroom. His reminiscences, written about forty years later, deal largely with his experiences during the frontier wars which ensued. In 1846 he was a member of the burgher force which, under Stockenstrom's command, cleared the Amatolas before striking out across the Kei River. After war had broken out again at the end of 1850, he and his brother Henry remained at Maasstrom, attempting to defend the position until it was destroyed by fire eight months later. Paver's reminiscences provide vivid insight into a little-known and contentious phase in the history of the eastern frontier. Notes and bibliography. Gilt on brown cb. 135pp illus b/w plates, maps. indexed. No inscrip. near fine in d/w. Rhodes University, Grahamstown. / Balkema, Cape Town 1979. £28.00

The Weslyan missionary the Rev. William Shaw acted as the Settler's spiritual guide and advisor. The first part of his journal covers the period 1820-21 when he was at Salem laying the foundations of Methodism among the Settlers. The second, 1827-29, covers his work at Wesleyville among the Gqunukhwebe, the first of a chain of mission stations stretching from the Eastern Cape to Natal.
Subsequently he moved to Butterworth. Documents dealing with the first decade of the Settlers are rare, and his journal tells clearly of the hard life faced by the Settlers at this time. Gilt on brown cb. 130pp 8vo indexed. Ownership inscrip ffep o/w Fine in VG d/w (no chips or tears, partial tight ring front and marks to rear also). Balkema for Rhodes University. The reminiscences cover the whole period of Stubbs' life from the family's embarkation on the 'Northampton' to his struggle as a saddler to support his family at his brother's farm, Harrison, near Whittlesea. He was a volunteer in the war of 1834, founded the Mounted Rangers, and became the hero of Albany in the wars of 1846 & 1850.

Sophia Pigot, daughter of an 1820 Settler leader, spent her childhood in comfortable circumstances in England, but shared the experiences of the pioneer community of the Settlers, married and bore 14 children, living variously in Kowie, Grahamstown, Graaff Reinet, Cape Town, and Natal. Includes genealogy, with extensive notes & bibliography.
